

Marriage Ceremony

Today we have gathered to witness the marriage of _____ and _____, and to share in the joy of this happy occasion.

This commitment to love each other for life is not to be entered into lightly. Love is truly the greatest gift we are given to share. One does not fall in or out of love, one grows in love.

Remember that love, loyalty, and understanding are the foundation for a happy and enduring marriage.

No other human ties are more tender, no other vows more important, than those you now assume.

Please face each other and join hands.

Do you _____, take _____ to be your lawful wedded spouse?

(Repeat for other spouse)

Please repeat after me:

I promise to love and comfort you, in sickness and in health, for richer or poorer, for better or worse and forsaking all others, be faithful to you, as long as I live.

Rings

As a token of your vows, you will each place a ring upon the other's hand that will symbolize the love you share.

Please place the ring on _____ left hand and repeat after me:

This ring I give thee, in token and pledge of my constant faith and everlasting love. With this ring, I thee wed.

(Repeat for other spouse)

Now that you have made this commitment with one another, may you live your lives with the same love and devotion that you share today.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as City Clerk for the City of Livermore, County of Alameda, State of California, I now pronounce you married under the laws of the State of California.
