

PRESS RELEASE

TYPE OF INCIDENT:

Missing Person

The Livermore Police Department is requesting the community's assistance in a missing person investigation.

On 03/02/17, Dwight Meier communicated to his family that he would no longer see them and they could find his vehicle at the Livermore Walmart. When his parents received the letter on 03/05/17, they contacted the Livermore Police Department and filed a missing person report. Meier's vehicle was located at the Walmart in Livermore like he had stated in his letter. LPD Officers along with the assistance from the Alameda County Sheriff's Office checked the surrounding areas around Walmart. Despite search efforts, Meier has yet to be located. LPD Detectives are continuing their investigation in locating the whereabouts of Meier.

Anyone with information regarding Dwight Meier's whereabouts please contact Livermore PD.
