Tri-Valley Housing Opportunities Guide

INTRODUCTION

This directory of publicly assisted affordable rental housing resources is produced as a public service by the jurisdictions in the Tri-Valley area, including the Cities of Dublin, Livermore, Pleasanton, San Ramon, and the Town of Danville. The guide provides:

- A listing of housing-related services in the Tri-Valley area, including fair housing resources,
- A listing, by area, of affordable (below-market) rental units and,
- Information regarding emergency housing and resources available to Tri-Valley residents.

When searching for an affordable apartment, first decide where you would like to live. Review the apartment listings and, using the definitions of the different types of apartments, call the apartments that seem to meet your criteria and eligibility. You may need to make several calls and research other affordable housing opportunities on the Internet by visiting affordable housing developers' websites. Keep in mind that below-market apartments are in high demand, and it may require persistence and time to find an apartment that is affordable to your needs.

Note that not all affordable housing services are provided in all locations. Some emergency housing resources are located outside of the Tri-Valley area but are available to Tri-Valley residents. In all cases, these listings are provided for information only and are not an endorsement by Tri-Valley member jurisdictions.

Information provided may be subject to change. In addition, there may be waiting lists for housing and/or housing-related supportive services. You are encouraged to call each service or housing complex directly to obtain more information and to determine eligibility and unit availability.

DEFINITIONS

INCOME LIMITS Income limits are established by law for admission into low and moderate income housing projects or to qualify for rent supplement assistance. Percentages are based on the most recent Area Median Income (AMI) for Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. Current income limits are found on page 23 of this guide.

BELOW MARKET UNITS A Below-Market-Rate (BMR) unit is an apartment that is priced to be affordable to households that are moderate income or below. Moderate income is defined as an annual income of 120% or less of the AMI for Alameda County and Contra Costa County and varies depending on the number of people in the household. AMI is adjusted every year. Usually, the BMR rent is lower than the rent of other units in the same development that are being sold or rented on the open market. Sometimes BMR units are priced for and restricted to households that are low income (80% or less of AMI) or very low income (50% or less of AMI).

SENIOR HOUSING This is housing that is restricted to seniors aged 62 and above. These communities are generally designed for seniors who are able to live on their own but desire the security and conveniences of community living. Some communities offer an enriched lifestyle with organized social and recreational programs as a part of everyday activities (Congregate Living or Retirement Communities), while others provide housing with only a minimal amount of amenities or services (Senior Apartments). Assisted living and nursing care are not included in these facilities unless otherwise noted.

ACCESSIBLE UNITS These are units that are fully accessible by wheelchair and incorporate specific features for persons with mobility impairments. Accessibility improvements may include features such as:

- Lower counters and cabinets
- Wheelchair passage widths and turning spaces
- Ramps
- Safety hand rails
- Grab bars
- Levers in place of door knobs
- Upgraded showers, tubs, lavatories, and kitchen sinks
- Long handled faucets
- Other features as described by the ADA Standards for Accessible Design (28 CFR Part 36)

PUBLIC HOUSING Housing that is financed and operated by a public agency (usually the local housing authority) with the aim of creating affordable housing. Rents are generally based on a percentage (usually 30%) of each household's monthly income.

ACCEPTS SECTION 8 Section 8 is a federal rental assistance program (see Page 5). The acceptance of Section 8 vouchers is at the option of the individual owner or landlord. Interested persons should call to confirm the acceptance of Section 8 at each complex.

FAIR HOUSING ASSISTANCE AND TENANT / LANDLORD COUNSELING

Housing discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, physical or mental handicap, familial status, sexual orientation, and any arbitrary reason in the sale or rental of any housing is illegal.

Tenant/Landlord Counseling programs are designed to help landlord and tenants understand their rights and responsibilities regarding rental housing. Mediation is provided where appropriate.

Fair housing and tenant/landlord issues are handled by the same agency. If you believe that you have experienced housing discrimination, please contact the appropriate fair housing service agency listed below. For more information about tenant/landlord counseling programs, please contact the appropriate agency.

RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Section 8 Certificates and Vouchers

The federal Section 8 program provides monthly rental assistance to low-income households. Approved tenants pay a fixed percentage (approximately 30 percent) of their income directly to their landlord for housing costs. The local Public Housing Authority pays the remainder. The voucher is issued to the tenant, who can use the assistance at any property subject to acceptance by the landlord. The Section 8 program is highly competitive and the waiting list to obtain a voucher can be very lengthy. If you are interested in applying for Section 8 assistance, please contact the appropriate public housing authority listed below.

Tri-Valley Rapid Re-Housing Program

Through the Tri-Valley Rapid Re-Housing Program, households are placed in housing, sign a lease in their own name, and receive rental assistance for up to 12 months. During this time, the household also accesses services to help them increase income and address their barriers to housing stability. As the household's income grows, rental assistance gradually tapers off until the family or individual is able to assume the full amount of the rent upon exiting the program. The program is available to Livermore and Pleasanton residents and is administered by Abode Services. You can contact Abode Services at (510) 657-7409 or via email at info@abodeservices.org

RENT AND DEPOSIT ASSISTANCE

ALAMEDA COUNTY RESIDENTS: Eden Council for Hope and Opportunity (ECHO), a nonprofit agency located in and serving Alameda County, administers a Rental Assistance Program (RAP). ECHO works with tenants who have experienced a temporary financial setback, and their landlords, to create a feasible repayment schedule for expenses such as outstanding rent or move-in costs. ECHO offers participating landlords a guarantee of repayment. The RAP program is available in Livermore and Pleasanton. If you are a family with children, elderly, permanently disabled, emancipated foster youth, a veteran, a victim of domestic violence, or a pregnant woman in her second trimester or later and are seeking assistance with security deposit or delinquent rent, please call ECHO at (925) 449-7340.

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY RESIDENTS: Shelter, Inc. a non-profit agency located in and serving Contra Costa County, prevents families and individuals from becoming homeless by providing one-time financial assistance with a portion of either the move-in or stay-in costs for rental housing in Contra Costa County. Shelter, Inc. also provides, on a limited basis, case management and rental support for Contra Costa households at risk of homelessness. Information can be obtained by calling (925) 338-1038. Website: www.shelterinc.org.

RESIDENTIAL REHABILITATION PROGRAMS

ALAMEDA COUNTY RESIDENTS Housing rehabilitation services are available to Tri-Valley residents through the cities of Livermore and Pleasanton and the County of Alameda (for Dublin and unincorporated areas). Housing rehabilitation programs provide financial and technical assistance to low-income homeowners for rehabilitation of owner-occupied homes, to tenants for accessibility improvements, and to owners of residential rental property where at least 51 percent of the units are occupied by low-income tenants. The following are examples of some of the services that are available through these programs:

- Minor home repair to address immediate hazards (small grants)
- Owner-occupied rehabilitation loans (low-interest deferred or payment loans)
- Exterior paint and clean-up grants
- Accessibility grants for tenants and owner-occupied residences (small grants)
- Rehabilitation of rental property units (low-interest loans)

ECHO Housing’s Pre-Purchase Counseling and Housing Opportunity Center (HOC) provides housing counseling and education for persons purchasing homes within the cities of Livermore and Pleasanton. The HOC provides financial education, assesses homebuyer preparedness, and provides information and linkage to affordable homeownership opportunities and down payment assistance programs for first-time homebuyers.

The HOC works with prospective homebuyers to identify barriers to homeownership, create an action plan with the potential homebuyers; assess their preparedness for the purchase, and prepare them for the responsibility of being homeowners, (including steps to cleaning up adverse credit and budgeting).

The HOC also offers assistance with early delinquency/foreclosure recovery, education and referrals, and post-purchase workshops.

Livermore and Pleasanton residents who are interested in receiving more information about the HOC programs and services, or want to register to attend a HOC Program Orientation, can call (925) 1-855-ASK-ECHO or visit the HOC’s website at: <http://www.echofairhousing.org/> .
