

Affordable Housing Requirement COMMUNITY MEETING

As part of an effort to update the Affordable Housing Ordinance, the City of Livermore is conducting a public meeting with community members and development stakeholders to discuss a series of potential changes, including re-activating affordable housing requirements for rental projects, incorporating requirements from the Isabel Neighborhood Specific Plan, and updating and clarifying the methodology for calculating the In-Lieu fee for residential for-sale projects.

This is an informational meeting only.

Public hearings will be scheduled at a future date.
